

Architecture, Archaeology and Contemporary City Planning

Draft Agenda

13 th june Friday	14 th June saurday	15 th June sunday
Arrivals, hotel check-ins (main group from abroad)	10.00 meeting at “Piazza Ferrucci” Visit along the “Piano Poggi” area along the hills (Piazzale Michelangelo, Forte Belvedere, San Miniato al Monte) Walk toward Porta Romana, Lunch in the nearby area.	10.00 Travel to Livorno (around 1h and a half), visit to the remains of the fortress, walk along the waterfront/seaside, visit to some meaningful buildings, lunch in the downtown,
Visit to the town, dinner in downtown	15.00 Travel to Lucca (around 1h), visit to the town center and its walls, Dinner in the Lucca town center, travel back to Florence	in the afternoon travel back to Florence, Dinner in the downtown.

Presentations - 20 min + 10 min questions/answers

16 th June (Chairman Giorgio Verdiani / Gianluca Belli)	17 th June (Chairman Per Cornel / Gianluca Belli)	18 th June (Chairman Alessandro Merlo / Per Cornel)
9.00-10.00 Presentations, openings (Saverio Mecca, Giorgio Verdiani, Per Cornel)	10.00 Archaeology, Architecture and Urban Planning: the experience from the Old City excavations in Gothenburg, Sweden - Per Cornell, Christina Rosén & Mattias Öbrink	10.00 The Waterfronts in Liguria and the case of La Spezia - Ludovica Marinaro
10.00 Which is the possible relationship between architecture and archaeology? Riccardo Butini, Alessandro Merlo	10.30 Urban pre-Hispanic maya settlement patterns in Quintana Roo, México, and its transformatiton. From abandonment to agglomeration - Adriana Velázquez Morlet	10.30 From simple traces to extended hypothesis, the case of the Cadi Gate at the Halambra, Granada. - Giorgio Verdiani, Pablo Rodriguez Navarro, Paolo Formaglini, Filippo Giansanti.
10.30 Archaeology as a generator for urban development - Pia Englund, Anna Frank, Stefan Larsson	11.00 Coffee Break	11.00 Coffee Break
11.00 Coffee Break	11.30 Archaeology and Public Art in Changing Urban Places - James Dixon	11.30 Urbanism and restoration of ancient buildings of nineteenth and twentieth-century in Rome. The importance of archaeological monument in studies of urban planning during the 19th and 20th century. Francesco Broglia
11.30 ARCHEOFI (archeologia.comune.fi.it) : a system for the sharing and management of archaeological urban data - Gabriele Andreozzi, Carlo Francini, Annica Sahlin, Emiliano Scampoli	12.00 Digs, data collection and dissemination – any chance for wider collaboration? - Liisa Seppänen	12.00 Changes in scale and matters of faith, the case of San Vivaldo, near Florence. - Riccardo Pacciani, Carla Mastroberti.
12.00 Visualising the City of Gothenburg in 1698 - 3D imagery based on collaborative research. - Andrine Nilsen, Rich Potter	12.30 Discussion 30 min	12.30 Discussion 30 min
12.30 Discussion 30 min	13.00 Lunch (resturants / pub in the nearby area)	13.00 Lunch (resturants / pub in the nearby area)
13.00 Lunch (restaurants / pub in the nearby area)	14.30 Arezzo and its archaeological legacy, a matter of understanding and designing - Francesco Polci e Filippo Pecorai	14.30 - Roundtable, conclusive discussion
14.30 The territory of Roccastrada from mining district in agro-tourism. Reuse of nodes and networks between past and future vocations. - Matteo Scamporrino	15.00 L’archéologue et l’architecte : une relation possible à travers les traces matérielles - Marie-Odile Lavendhomme	16.30 - Closing
15.00 Revitalization of abandoned villages: design processes in the memory of places. - Luca Di Figlia	15.30 - Reflexiones sobre el papel de la Arqueología y la Arquitectura en las intervenciones en el paisaje urbano histórico - Gaspar Muñoz Cosme, Cristina Vidal Lorenzo	17.00 - Unformal farewell in the downtown
15.30 Arquitectura Contemporánea en Centros Históricos ¿Ruptura o Continuidad? Salvador Lara Ortega	16.00 Round table 60 min
16.00 Roundtable 60 min	17.00 - visit to the downtown
17.00 - visit to the downtown		